Things won't look good for NMSt to open the season. They play 4 non-conf foes that were all in bowls and have 3 tough conf games to open the year, probably being an underdog in their first 7 games! This year the Aggies bring in JUCO Royal Gill who should have a fine season in Mumme's attack and with Dombrowski's move to WR, Gill will have some solid weapons. Defense will be the question this year. Provided the team sticks together and buys into Mumme's schemes, the Aggies could have a strong finish. After outgaining SBC foes by an avg of 104.5 ypg last year, NMSt has a shot at an upper half, placing in the WAC thanks to a strong finish.
