The Ole Ball Coach is back in business and does have some talent to work with. It will be interesting to see him play in the same division as Florida and two teams he used to dominate (Tenn and UGA), hoping to turn around the Gamecocks' losing streaks against the upper echelon SEC East teams. Unfortunately, he doesn't have the perfect QB for his offense and only has 9 starters back overall, the fewest in the SEC. Even with that said, they have 7 home games and SC has a great shot at a winning season and their 1st bowl trip since 2001. We feel SC is truly a sleeping giant as they draw 80,000 fans, despite 3 mediocre seasons in a row. Spurrier may have them contending for the SEC East in the near future.
