Last year ULM went from 1-6 to a 4-3 conference record and a tie for 3rd place in the SBC as they were under much better conditions in Charlie Weatherbie's second season. Remember, he did not even get the benefit of a spring practice his first year. This year he has a veteran squad returning with 8 starters back on offense, including outstanding QB Steven Jyles and could have the most explosive offense in the league, one year after scoring just 19.2 ppg with 3 frosh on the O-line. The schedule maker was kind to ULM as they get four home games in league play and that has us calling for an upper half finish this season.
